

What can the authorities do to make the country united?

Is voting in elections a sign of patriotism?

What would be your emblem if someone asked you to design one?

Why do many people associate sacrifice with patriotism?

Do you love your country? Are you proud of it? Why or why not?

What does it mean that all people are equal and have equal rights?

Do you think there is equality in Poland? Give examples.

Does the problem of equality refer only to race or other groups of people too?

Why are so many people not interested in the condition of their country?

How can someone show respect for their country?

Do you take part in official celebrations of national holidays?

What is constitution? Is it an important document?