

1

consent

2 reluctant

3

ponder about

4 vanish

5

ensure

6

approve of 1

implement

concern

accomplish

solitude

overdraft

perceive

3 whine

greedy

tedious

coincidence

sigh

detrimental

4

walk on air

deter from hesitate

appreciate

overwhelming

to highlight

5

decline

loathe

restrain convey insecurity

confess

6 deliberate

inevitable

insight

overcome

derive from

reassure

Explain the words from the grid in English.

Give a synonym / an opposite to the words from the grid.

Use 5-10 words from the grid to talk about you or people you know.

Complete the following expressions using the words from the grid.

to with relief

to of your decision

to enjoyment from everyday activities

a attempt to about the weather

to be to invest money in this company to lots of emotions in a photo

to a new strategy

..... for power

to to tell a white lie

a task

to a task

to that we will reach our destination on time to an offer

pure

to be a cause for

to exceed my limit

an fear

Answer key

sigh / approve / derive / deliberate / whine / reluctant / convey / implement / greedy / hesitate / tedious / accomplish / ensure / decline / coincidence / concern / overdraft / overwhelming

Create 10 sentences using expressions from the previous task.

Answer the following questions.

What kinds of things will you never approve of?

What kinds of things didn't your parents approve of when you were a child?

What are you reluctant to do?

Is your health a cause for concern?

What's the biggest concern in your life?

How do you feel when you have to confess to something?

Do you remember a situation when you had to confess to something?

Where do you derive enjoyment from?

Have you ever deterred someone from doing something?

What do you loathe doing?

What's your biggest accomplishment?

What gives you a sense of accomplishment?

How do you feel when you overcome a big problem?

Do you remember a problem you have overcome?

In what situations do you hesitate?

Are you reluctant to do anything now?

What do people whine about?

What do you whine about?

What's the most tedious task you have ever done?

Are you greedy for power? Why (not)?

Why do you think people are greedy for different things?

Have you ever met anybody by coincidence?

In what situations can you sigh with relief?

What do you have to restrain yourself from during official meetings?

How can you highlight the importance of something so that people understand it?

What can have a detrimental effect on your health?

Whose job do you appreciate?

Which members of your family do you appreciate?

How do you think you are perceived by your friends and strangers?

When did you decide about your current profession?

1

seize

down-to-earth

steal
the show

entrust

asset

leadership

2

whisper

have a soft spot for mischievous

make a witty
remark

despise

deny

3 filthy

nail-biting

setback

embark on a project

from scratch

cuddle

4 solitary

spotless

vibrant

awkward

be in low spirits

be on cloud nine

5

outset

commence

vulnerable

prompt sb
to do sth

deed

leftovers

6

accuracy

excruciating

gripping

mind-
blowing

prodigy

distinguished

Explain the words from the grid in English.

Give a synonym / an opposite to the words from the grid.

Use 5-10 words from the grid to talk about you or people you know.

Complete the following expressions using the words from the grid.

..... confinement

a plot

..... pain

start from

a writer

a look on his face

..... skills

to someone with a serious task

my good for the day

to your loved one when they need it to a declaration of love in my ear to reside in a city full of various cultures to despise someone from the

to overcome a thanks to the help of friends to leave the room as if no one has used it don't hesitate and the opportunity

a attitude to life

an silence

Answer key

solitary / gripping / excruciating / scratch / distinguished / mischievous / leadership / entrust / deed / cuddle / whisper / vibrant / outset / setback / spotless / seize / down-to-earth / awkward

Create 10 sentences using expressions from the previous task.

Answer the following questions.

What's the most gripping book you have read?

What's the most gripping film you have seen?

What was a nail-biting experience that you have had?

What are the advantages and disadvantages of living in a vibrant city?

How would you explain the quote: "Seize the day"?

Is having a spotless house for Easter or Christmas crucial in your family?

Is there any important project that you are going to commence soon? What is it?

What makes it important?

What kind of project would you never embark on?

Is it easy for you to make witty remarks while talking with friends?

Have you ever prompted someone to do something? What was it?

Why do people whisper?

What do you have a soft spot for?

Which of your friends would you call down-to-earth?

Is a down-to-earth attitude in life a good or bad thing?

What can we do with leftovers?

Why do so many people throw out leftovers?

When was the last time you were on cloud nine?

When was the last time you were in low spirits? How do you cheer yourself up?

What are your biggest assets?

Do you remember a situation when you had to start something from scratch?

What do you think leadership skills are? Do you possess them?

Should you always take care of the accuracy of texts that you write?

What are the pros and cons of being a distinguished author?

Do you remember the most awkward situation you have been in?

What does it mean that children behave in a mischievous way?

What's the most excruciating pain you have suffered?

What's your good deed for today?

How do people behave when there is suddenly an awkward silence?